

Medieninformation

Berlin, im Juni 2017

Let's Play Ping Pong! Über die Künstler des Comic-Live-Jams

Michael Jordan is born in 1972 in Erlangen, Germany. Lives and works as an illustration artist and graphic printer in Erlangen. Studied Media Illustration in Hamburg, followed by Printmaking at the University of Applied Art in Vienna. In 1999, he won 1st prize at the International Comix Competition Fumetto (Luzern, Switzerland); in 2002 he was a UNESCO scholarship holder at the Faculty of Fine Arts in Chiang Mai, Thailand. Since 2003 he has been working together with the artist group Tonto Comics from Graz, which was honored with the outstanding artist award 2012 of the Austrian Federal Ministry of Education, Arts and Culture. www.ansichten-des-jordan.de

© Michael Jordan About Michael Jordan

Markus Witzel aka Mawil is a comic artist based in Berlin. He draws illustrations for magazines and newspapers like Der Tagesspiegel, giving workshops at Goethe-Institut and art schools. He has won the ICOM award for Best Independent Comic on four different occasions, most recently in 2007. As part of the influential Berlin collective Monogatari, he has carved out a reputation as one of the Europe's most natural and lively cartoonists and can be regularly found appearing and teaching at comics festivals around the continent. His books have been translated into English, French, Spanish, Polish and Czech. www.mawil.net

© Markus Witzel About Mawil (Markus Witzel)

Hamed Eshrat was born in Teheran, Iran, in 1979, a period of political turmoil and inspiration for his first graphic novel Tipping Point - Téhéran 1979. After his family came to Germany, he studied Visual Communication in Berlin and Wellington, New Zealand. Currently, Eshrat works as a communication designer, illustrator and author in Berlin. He has been working for different magazines and newspapers like Tagesspiegel, Le Monde diplomatique, Das Magazin, as well as various publishing houses and agencies. eshrat.tumblr.com

© Hamed Eshrat About Hamed Eshrat